This Sunday's Gospel text tells the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus. It is a call to generosity and compassion and a turning away from selfishness and entitlement. As we acknowledge our relationships with creation and Indigenous Peoples, we are challenged to examine our priorities and actions in daily living. Will our choices reflect the promise and hope of the Risen Christ?

A Land Acknowledgement expresses how we relate to creation and our Indigenous neighbours. It describes the physical space we inhabit and it recognizes the treaty responsibilities our ancestors have agreed upon. It also names the peoples who have cared for this territory for many generations.

Church Fire Plan For everyone's awareness, a copy of the Church Fire Plan for safe exit from the Sanctuary appears in the back of the worship books. Please take a moment to review for your own safety.

Confession and Forgiveness:

P: Blessed be ...

Merciful God,

A: we confess that we have not followed your path
but have chosen our own way.

Instead of putting others before ourselves,
we long to take the best seats at the table.

When met by those in need,
we have too often passed by on the other side.

Set us again on the path of life.

Save us from ourselves and free us to love our neighbors.

Amen.

From Wisdom Emerging

From Wisdom emerging, we fashion a space for people converging in safety and grace,
To shelter the freedom of one and of all in Love without border or boundary or wall.

Faith's journey reclaiming, we blaze a new trail with others, exclaiming: "Let justice prevail!"
Rejecting worn paths that oppress and mislead,
we walk in community, cherished and freed!

Forever exploring, we seek to learn more of Wisdom's outpouring, of Love's open door.
Amazed at the mysteries and graces we find,
we joyfully share them with all humankind.

The future progressing, we move through its change,
old systems redressing, new patterns arrange;
Protecting all freedoms with every new choice,
we follow the Spirit and raise our clear voice!

The Lord's Prayer in Paraphrase

A First Nations Interpretation

O' Great Spirit, the source of Our Life, You created us all. You live in the Heavens, in the Earth and in our hearts. Your name is very sacred to us; we see It everyday in the skies, in the rivers and in the forests.

You are a friend to the four legged ones, the winged ones, the ones who live in the waters and to the two legged ones. Your eternal Ways bring harmony and strength, so the hoop of your people is unbroken as we gather around the council fires for wisdom.

You are the Source of our life. So, we rejoice each day for the food we eat, the shelter we live in and the companions we share. Help us to remember that as we love all that is around us, Your love grows within us. Lead our steps away from the trails of confusion and hurtfulness; place our feet on the trails of harmony and sharing.

For Your Ways direct our lives, Your Power ignites the campfires of our hearts. Let us sing songs of joy to each other as we gather our logs. Thank you, Great Spirit. Amen.
