Today's festival is a bridge between the Advent-Christmas-Epiphany cycle that comes to a close today and the Lent-Easter cycle that begins in several days. On a high mountain Jesus is revealed as God's beloved Son, echoing the words at his baptism. This vision of glory sustains us as Jesus faces his impending death in Jerusalem. We turn this week to Ash Wednesday and our yearly baptismal journey from Lent to Easter. Some churches put aside the alleluia at the conclusion of today's liturgy. This word of joy will be omitted during the penitential season of Lent and will be sung again at Easter.

Psalm 2

Tone 1

<sup>1</sup>Why are the nations | in an uproar?
Why do the peoples mutter | empty threats?

against the LORD and against the | LORD's anointed?

<sup>3</sup>"Let us break their | yoke," they say;
"let us cast off their | bonds from us."

<sup>4</sup>God whose throne is in heav- | en is laughing;
the LORD holds them | in derision.

<sup>5</sup>Then in wrath God | speaks to them,
and in rage fills | them with terror.

<sup>6</sup>"As for me, I have anoint- | ed my king
upon Zion, my | holy mountain."

<sup>7</sup>Let me announce the decree | of the LORD,
who said to me, "You are my son; this day have I be- | gotten you.

<sup>8</sup>Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for | your inheritance and the ends of the earth for | your possession.

<sup>9</sup>You shall crush them with an | iron rod
and shatter them like a | piece of pottery."

<sup>10</sup>And now, you | kings, be wise;
be warned, you rulers | of the earth.

and with trembling | bow in worship;

<sup>12</sup>lest the LORD be angry, and you perish in a sudden | blaze of wrath.
Happy are all who take ref- | uge in God!

Worship Announcements

Worship Music Note: Deacon Scott and the people of Mount Zion commissioned Waterloo composer Joanne Bender to write a cantata to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the installation of their pipe organ in 2009. The text follows today's gospel reading and then invites us into the story, transforming our lives through God's redeeming grace.
